

Defense Stronger In The US

Sec. Johnson in Statement on Larger Outlay In Preparedness

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—Secretary of Defense Johnson said today that national defense is stronger than ever before in our peacetime history.

He declared the country is spending more on preparedness and at the same time getting more for its money than ever before.

"Next year we will get even more by way of preparedness out of every dollar appropriated than we are getting now," he added in a speech prepared for delivery to the reserve officers association.

"With your continued help," Johnson told the association, "we will harvest a rich crop in terms of adequate defense. We shall achieve our goal of peace through strength."

The defense chief advocated parity between the armed services in the procurement and training of junior officers for the reserve and regular establishments.

To Step up Defense

He expressed hope that rights and privileges now available in the navy will be extended to the army and air force as well. This apparently was a reference to the Holloway plan, under which the navy pays all expenses of between 8,000 and 10,000 college students who agree to accept a tour of active duty on graduation and to participate in the organized navy reserve if they do not remain on active duty after this tour. The navy gets more officers from this source than from the naval academy at Annapolis.

Johnson said the reserve program is hampered by a lack of sufficient training facilities. For this reason, he continued, the defense department is supporting a national defense reserve facilities bill.

The secretary urged members of the reserve officers association to encourage young men to participate in the national defense program.

"We have ever growing needs for the capable enlisted men who make the planes fly, the ships sail and the guns roll," he said. "The ranks of our reserves, too, are not full. With the exception of the National Guard of the army and air force, which are up to strength, there are places in the reserves for thousands of young men in the army, navy, marines and air force."

Time For Sober Thought

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson said today this is a time for very steady and sober thought and action by the American people.

He made that reply when asked at a news conference whether "we are moving from a cold to a hot war."

Most of the other questions put to the secretary of state, had reference also to the decision to send sea and air support to the South Korean forces resisting a communist invasion.

Acheson called the invasion a cynical, brutal attack by armed force against an unoffending people and volunteered some comment but his replies to questions were given with obvious caution.

He said: "This government is deeply gratified that reaction from the free world has been almost unanimously favorable to the American policy of supporting the UN with force."

There has been no response from Moscow to yesterday's American request that Russia use its influence with the North Korean regime to restore peace in Korea.

Reporters could draw their own conclusions as to what would be the next developments.

The status of Formosa is a matter for future determination. He said President Truman was making it clear that this government is not deciding on Formosa at this time.

Several times, Acheson declined comment on the reaction of Russia. He said he did not want to get into any speculation on Russia, that we are dealing with attacks on Korea and the possibility of attacks on other areas and he did not wish in any way to discuss the Soviet Union in connection with this action.

Acheson said he had looked over the editorial in the Moscow official newspaper Pravda which was Russia's first reaction to the White House pronouncement on Korea.

The only thing that stood out, he said, was the allegation that "Please turn to Page 8, Col. 5"

High Spots of Geography

President Truman has announced that U. S. planes and warships would be sent to the aid of forces in South Korea (1), object of Communist invasion; that the U. S. Seventh fleet was being directed to prevent any Communist attack on Formosa (2); that arms aid would be speeded to the Philippines (3), and Indo-China (4). M. T. Chasnoff Died Tuesday At Son's Home

Many Years Was One of Leading Merchants Here

Moses T. Chasnoff, aged 89, from about 1898 until 1926 a merchant in Sedalia, died at 11:45 o'clock Tuesday night at the home of his son, David Chasnoff, 1240 West Sixty-first street terrace, Kansas City. He had made his home with his son since the death of Mrs. Chasnoff, in 1948.

Moses T. Chasnoff

Mr. Chasnoff was born in Petrograd, Russia, and was married there to Miss Mary Agant. They came to America on their honeymoon in 1881, and settled first in Mitchell, South Dakota, then moved to Lincoln, Neb. When in Lincoln a friend, the late Jacob Waldman, persuaded him to locate in Sedalia, and Mr. Chasnoff opened a store on West Second street from there to 116 South Ohio avenue, later taking over the large store room on the northwest corner of Third street and Ohio avenue. His son David Chasnoff was associated with him in his business, and they operated one of the largest dry goods and wo-

Swimming Pool And Park Improvements For Negroes

There is real activity in Hubbard park this year and the youngsters as well as the adults are enjoying it to the fullest. This is the first time, according to Prof. J. B. Hylick, that the park has had a swimming pool, the first time it has had lights and the grass is kept cut until the whole appearance of the park is attractive. It is the first time, too, that there has been a planned recreational program and the Negroes are very happy over the interest that has been taken in them and the things provided for their enjoyment.

The swimming pool, was built, of course, through a bond issue voted a few years ago but the recreational program was conceived by Jack Cunningham, who until her recent death was vice president of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, was recreational director of that organization and who is continuing to assume the

Price Support Bill is Signed

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill boosting by $2,000,000,000 the funds for the government price support program.

The additional authorization is for use of the Agriculture Department's Commodity Credit Corporation, which previously had been given $4,850,000,000 for the price support program. The program this year is to bolster prices of cotton, wheat, corn, rice, tobacco, peanuts and several other crops.

Phone Rates at Residences be Up 25 Cents

Effective July 1, With Hike on Those For Business

Sedalia telephone users are due for a monthly rate increase of 25 cents on residential phones according to a new rate schedule that was announced today by the Southwestern Bell Telephone company and confirmed in Sedalia by the company's manager, Thomas M. Mullaly.

The increase, which becomes effective Saturday, will affect all residential phones with slight variances in business phone rates. All extensions will be exempted from the new schedule increase.

Long distance rates will also change in the 11 mile to 87 mile airline calls. Another change in long distance rates will be the minimum on short person to person calls. The minimum, previously set at ten cents, has been boosted to fifteen cents on such calls.

The company has been trying to get approval of the rate boost from the Public Service Commission in Jefferson City for thirteen months. It was not until June 17, however, that approval was given.

The Sedalia rates of one party residential phones has risen from $3.00, excluding tax, to $3.25, while the tax increase is from 51 cents to 56 cents. On two party residences the increase is from $2.50 to $2.75 with four cent tax increase. The old rate, including tax, was $2.45.

Makes No Threats On Strife

Americans Are Accused in Soviet Paper of Acts Of Aggression

MOSCOW, June 28—(AP)—Pravda, in the first public Russian comment on the new United States policy in the far Pacific, accused Americans today of "direct acts of aggression" against both Korea and Communist China and asked: "Have they gone too far?"

The front page editorial in Pravda, official newspaper of the Communist party central committee, said President Truman's order dispatching ships and planes to Korea and Formosa was "further evidence that the American ruling circles no longer confine themselves to the preparations of aggression, but have gone over to direct acts of aggression."

"The American government, with its characteristic unceremoniousness as regards international law, is grossly trampling on the United Nations charter, acting as though the United Nations organization did not exist at all," the newspaper said.

News of President Truman's statement of yesterday was handled in a routine fashion by the Moscow press and radio. Pravda published the actual news dispatch on page three, in four paragraphs. Izvestia, the government newspaper, printed it on the back page. Red Star and Red Fleet, the army and Navy Organs, also published the Tass dispatch on the back pages. Only Pravda, which carries great weight in Russia, made an editorial comment.

Publish Three Dispatches

Three dispatches from Pyongyang, capital of North Korea, concerning the fighting in Korea, were published immediately preceding the dispatch about the statement of President Truman. Just after the story of the President's statement came a Tass dispatch from New York, quoting Gen. MacArthur on the military situation in Southern Korea.

Foreign diplomats, studying the Pravda editorial, said it carried no threats. They said that on the whole it seemed a "considered" reaction, and pointed out it was turned out quickly—only a few hours after the President's statement.

Because of the time difference—Moscow is seven hours ahead of Washington—Soviet papers often cannot react immediately to big news. In this case, however, the reaction was swift, indicating the seriousness with which the Soviets regard the situation.

Foreign observers, commenting on the gravity of the situation with regard to Korea and Indo China, said it might be even more serious with references to Formosa. Pravda called the President's order an actual occupation of Chinese territory by American armed forces.

Stone Masons Work On Statue of Liberty

Tuesday night three stone masons from Sedalia donated their time to help lay the Carthage marble which will cover the base of the replica of the Statue of Liberty, to be dedicated the Fourth of July at the Court House. They are: Leonard Hall, Clarence T.oma and James Doty.

The work on the statue is entering the final phase and it is expected that the statue itself will be up by Saturday.

Gen. Eisenhower Commends Stand

NEW YORK, June 28—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in commenting on the Korean situation said today: "The best chance for sustaining world peace was taken a firm stand and when our government guaranteed the government of South Korea, there was no recourse but to do what President Truman said and did."

Gives Talk on Blind to Club

Joe Elliott is Guest Speaker to The Lions Club

A talk on the education of the blind was given Wednesday to the Sedalia Lions club at its regular noon-day meeting by Joe Elliott, at the Bothwell hotel. Elliott who is 27 years old and who has been blind since childhood, spoke on the Missouri School for the Blind.

Elliott said he received his education in the Missouri School of the Blind, which was founded in 1851. At that time there were six students. Today there are between 120 to 125. He explained the Braille system, by which the blind are able to read, and the length of time to learn the alphabet.

Specialized Training

The school accepts students from five years old up to twenty-one years old. The training is specialized and given in two or more vocational fields as preparation for becoming self-supporting after graduation. All are given careful training in economics and social fields and in good citizenship to better prepare the blind to find their normal place in a world of seeing people.

Elliott then gave a demonstration of the "Talking Book Machine" which is completely made by blind people and is on the order of an electric phonograph record player.

He was introduced by George Curnutt, program chairman. Guest at the meeting was Gene Kurash, Missouri Commissioner of Semi-Pro Baseball, guest of A. W. Haller, Kurash spoke briefly on the coming State Semi-Pro tournament to be held in Sedalia starting July 21 through the 30th. President A. W. Haller presided.

Full Support From Taft

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) today announced to the Senate his full support of the use of American armed forces in Korea.

Taft told the Senate he believed the policy laid down yesterday by President Truman was right "and I see no choice except to back up wholeheartedly and with every available resource the American men in our armed forces who have been moved into Korea."

"We are actually engaged in a de facto war with the northern Korean communists," Taft said. "That in itself is serious, but nothing compared to the possibility that it might lead to war with Soviet Russia."

He said there could only be the hope that Soviet leaders "have sufficient judgment to know that a world war will result in their own destruction and will therefore refrain from such acts as might bring about such a tragic conflict."

Taft previously had reserved comment.

Senate Democratic leader Lucas, in an expression of confidence that the U. S. and Russia are not going to war, said the goal of a July 31 adjournment of Congress still stands.

British Naval Forces at The U. S. Disposal

Those in Japanese Waters Offered For Use at Once

LONDON, June 28—(AP)—Prime Minister Attlee announced today Britain has decided to place its naval forces in Japanese waters at the disposal of the United States to support American action in South Korea.

Attlee said the British naval forces were offered for immediate use. He made the announcement in the House of Commons.

"I need scarcely say that the prime minister speaks for all parties in the house when he makes this announcement," Winston Churchill, leader of the Conservative opposition, declared.

"We shall do our best to give him any support he needs in what seems to me an inescapable duty."

Attlee said British forces around Japan "are almost the same as those of the U. S. naval forces."

The whole house cheered. The announcement came in response to Churchill's question "whether the naval forces we have on the spot are such as are necessary to make a substantial contribution, relative to American forces."

Attlee said it is "certain that this country will carry out its obligations to the United Nations."

He observed Britain is "already carrying a heavy burden in holding the line in southeast Asia," where British troops are engaged in fighting Communist-led guerrillas in Malaya.

Doubts Global Conflict

A British spokesman meanwhile said that the British cabinet feels that Russia will not intervene to touch off a global conflict because she definitely does not want war.

Asked how British commonwealth countries were chipping in to support U. S. action against the North Koreans, Attlee said: "We have our responsibilities under the U. N. We have taken this action. Commonwealth countries are equally members of the U. N. and it is, of course, for them to decide what action they will take."

British naval forces are in Japanese waters on summer exercises. They include two cruisers, (Please turn to Page 8, Col. 5)

Impetus Given Marine Enlistments

ST. LOUIS, June 28—(AP)—In the three hours following President Truman's statement of policy in the Korean crisis yesterday, 12 young men applied for enlistment in the Marines here.

"That's more than we usually have in a week," said Maj. Fraser West, the recruiting officer.

Decision on Military Force New Venture

Action to Back Cease-Fire Order After Defiance

By Max Harrelson

LAKE SUCCESS, June 28—(AP)—The United Nations embarked upon an historic venture today by calling upon its members to use military force to back up a cease-fire order defied by Communist North Korea.

The decision was taken late last night by the Russian-boycotted security council, a few hours after President Truman announced the United States already was ordering planes and ships to support the invaded republic of (South) Korea.

The vote was 7 to 1, the minimum number of affirmative votes required. India and Egypt asked to be recorded as not participating because they had not received instructions. Yugoslavia cast the negative vote.

The affirmative votes were cast by the United States, Britain, China, France, Cuba, Norway and Ecuador.

Direct Action Approved

The council's action was momentous in several ways: 1—It gave its stamp of approval to Mr. Truman's bold plan of direct action to stop communist aggression. This was the first time in its history that the council had authorized the military sanctions provided by the U. N. charter.

2—It was a clear warning to Russia, although Russia was not mentioned in the U. S. resolution, that the U. N. would not permit the seizure of countries by force.

3—It may have made the Russians angry enough that they will decide to make permanent their boycott which they started last Jan. 10 in protest over the presence of Chinese Nationalist delegates.

Capital in Panic As Troops Approach; Russian Tanks Bombed Out

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—The 21 American Republics today declared their "firmest support" for the decisions of the United Nations in the Korean crisis.

A resolution adopted by the council of the organization of American States also affirmed the "continental solidarity which ties the American States."

Costa Rican Ambassador Marie Echandi proposed the resolution. The OAS Council is the central agency of the 21 American countries.

WASHINGTON, June 28—(AP)—The defense department confirmed today that the South Korean capital of Seoul has fallen.

An Army report here also stated that nearby Kimpo airport is in North Korean hands, and that Inchon seaport is probably untenable.

But the report added that despite loss of these three key points, morale of the South Korean forces remains high.

An army spokesman said that there had been "no sabotage, no subversive action and no guerrilla warfare" against south Korean forces.

The north Korean invaders apparently have more and heavier tanks than was originally reported, the army said.

A Pentagon spokesman said Seoul apparently was captured by two north Korean thrusts spearheaded by about 100 tanks. Late reports identified some of these tanks as Russian manufactured T-34s—identified as 35-ton tanks mounting 76 mm or 88 mm guns. See-Saw Struggle

By Russell Brines

TOKYO, Thursday, June 28—(AP)—South Korea's army, scattered and chewed by big Russian-made tanks of the northern invaders, struggled today to form a new line a score of miles south of their fallen capital of Seoul.

Seoul and its airfield at Kimpo, 16 miles west, fell to the Communist invaders Wednesday after a see-saw struggle since the start of the Red onslaught Sunday.

Loss of Seoul and Kimpo and concession that Inchon, Seoul's port 20 miles west, was probably untenable, were confirmed by the United States Defense Department in Washington.

The Communists, betraying the completeness of their invasion preparations, quickly began broadcasting from Seoul, introduced Lee Sun Yup, defense minister of the northern regime, as the new mayor of Seoul.

Order Schools Reopen

In the broadcast, heard in Tokyo, Lee even ordered Seoul schools to reopen today.

Carrying out President Truman's orders for American air and naval support for the hard-pressed south Korean troops, the U. S. Far East Air Forces announced its jet fighters and light bombers effectively attacked north Korean positions northwest of Seoul on Wednesday.

A summary said troop concentrations, truck convoys and railroad yards near Munsan, 25 miles northwest of Seoul, were bombed. It said one American F-82 fighter and a B-26 light bomber were reported destroyed on the ground by strafing of the Russian-made north Korean planes.

The public information officer first said the two American planes were shot down, but later explained they were strafed on the ground.

United States ground troops are not being employed, but General MacArthur sent a signal corps unit to set up a field headquarters somewhere in south Korea today.

O. H. P. King, Associated Press correspondent, reported from Suwon, 20 miles south of Seoul, that the defense forces were trying to re-form just north of Suwon under Gen. Choi Byong Duk, south Korean chief of staff.

King said the southerners still were falling back in order, but that they had been badly mauled by the northern tanks.

(The U. S. Defense Department identified these as 35-ton Russian-made T-34s, mounting 76 or 88-millimeter guns, and small 12-ton Russian-made T-70s.)

Chiefs Play Lapatinas Here Tonight

Both Teams Won First Half Pennants In Their Division

The Sedalia Chiefs and the Kansas City Lapatina team, both first half Ban Johnson league championship teams of their respective division, will meet under the lights of Liberty park tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

This will be the first time this season, these two teams have played together and fans can be assured of a well played baseball game tonight, as anything can happen when these two teams get together. The local Ban Johnson team has always given the fans something to rave about during their encounters this season.

Imhauser to Pitch
Joe Imhauser, ace righthander for the Chiefs, who is credited this season with winning six games and losing none, will take his position on the mound and Carl Barbour will be behind the plate.

The Kansas City lineup was not available at this writing. However it is believed they will send in their best hurler when they face the Chiefs tonight.

Friday night at Liberty park the Chiefs will be hosts to the Kansas City Milligrams, who finished in fourth place in their division of the Ban Johnson league. In this game Bob Brown who has pitched the Chiefs to five victories against one loss, will take his turn on the pitcher's mound with Whitworth behind the plate.

League Re-opens Sunday
Sunday night at Liberty park the Chiefs will open the second half of Ban Johnson league play with the Boonville team. On July 4, the Sedalians will play the K. C. Katz team at Liberty park. The Katz B-J team was knocked out of first place in the K. C. division by one game.

Since the start of the season the Chiefs have played 17 games. Four games were rained out. Two of the total games played have been an exhibition game and a benefit game for Larry Vilmer. The Chiefs came out on top in both of them.

Thus far, the Chiefs have compiled a .667 percentage, winning 10 of 15 league games played, which landed them in first place. Sedalia clinched the first half pennant by dividing a twin bill with Mexico, silencing Moberly's threat. Moberly won second place with 8 wins and six losses.

U. S. Girls Play Crowd-Pleasing Tennis Overseas

By Charles Whiting
WIMBLEDON, England, June 28—(AP)—American beauties on display in the British tennis championships are showing the crowds that their tennis rackets are not merely props for pretty pictures.

The girls are playing sharp, crowd-pleasing tennis. Also, they are going about their business without any of the fashion frills introduced last year by Gertrude (Gorgeous Gussy) Moran of lace panties fame.

Maybe it's because the championship committee has laid down the law about unconventional dress. A notice in the women's dressing room says "White dress will be worn on the courts during play."

Avoid Extreme Styles
There had been some talk that Miss Moran might repeat her performance of wearing the black shorts with which she shocked Cairn court circles last winter. But so far the Santa Monica, Calif., girl and her compatriots have avoided any extreme styles. Gussy appeared yesterday wearing a white tailored, sleeveless blouse with white shorts.

The fans might have been disappointed with her costume but they couldn't find much fault with her game. She toyed with a Swedish opponent, Miss Lagerborg to advance to the third round in straight sets.

All seven seeded American men, headed by New York's Billy Talbot, reached the round of 32 without any narrow squeaks. The only casualty was unseeded Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, who lost to Britain's Tony Mottram.

Doubles were scheduled today.

Schoendienst Forced at Second

St. Louis Cardinals second baseman Red Schoendienst slides wide of the bag (left) at second base as he is forced out by Chicago Cubs shortstop Roy Smalley in the second inning of a game at Chicago's Wrigley Field. No Game Last Night as Team Failed to Arrive

Played Here Tonight

A good crowd turned out for the Junior American Legion game scheduled last night at Liberty park between the Sedalia and Concordia teams.

However, there was no game, because the Concordia team did not show up. It was believed the Concordians got mixed up on the playing date.

No money had to be refunded as the hat is passed around during Legion games.

The Junior Legion baseball team and management regrets very much that the game was not played. The team from Concordia failed to appear and in a telephone call to the management there it was declared to Manager Emory Ellsworth that it was understood by them it was to have been played Thursday night, June 29.

The Sedalia Junior Legion club, sponsored by Post No 16, American Legion, has several important games ahead.

The first of these will be at Marshall on Thursday night and players are to suit up at their homes and be in readiness to leave the Smith-Cotton high school at 6 p. m.

Sunday the Legion club plays Warsaw in a league game at that place, the game to start at 1:30 p. m.

On Tuesday, July 4 the club plays Warrensburg.

Pitched a Perfect Game For Toledo

Marlin Stuart Faced Only 27 Batters in A 'Dream' No-hitter

By The Associated Press
Toledo's Marlin Henry Stuart, 31-year old Detroit Tiger discard, today owns the second perfectly pitched game in American Association history.

Stuart, down a little more than a month from the Tigers, faced only 27 Indianapolis batters in a "dream" no-hitter as the Mud Hens nipped the league leading Tribe, 1-0 at Swayne field in Toledo.

Errorless Support
The 6-foot, 2-inch right hander from Paragould, Ark., walked none and received errorless support from his mates. Stuart struck out only three, but got the jump on every batter with a tricky knuckle ball and slider. Only four balls were hit to the outfield, the infield accounting for 20 put-outs on batted balls.

The only previous perfect game was fashioned on June 26, 1947, as "sore-armed" Carl Derosa, pitching for Kansas City, defeated Minneapolis. It was the first no-hitter of the 1950 Association season.

Toledo's one run came in the fourth inning on George Lorch's single. Bill Barnacle's two bager and Don Lund's fly-out to center.

Manilla defeats Bethel 4-H Club Softballers

The Manilla 4-H softball team rolled over the Bethel 4-H nine 25 to 7 Sunday on the Manilla home grounds.

The Manilla team in winning racked up their third straight win in the 4-H softball league. The Manilla team clinched the victory in the first inning as they pushed twelve runs across the plate to subdue any pre-game hopes that the Bethel team had. After the wild first inning the Bethel team settled down but were still no match for Manilla.

McClure with 5 for six times at bat and Alderman with three out of four led the rampaging Manilla nine at the plate, while Johnson, the Bethel pitcher, connected for three hits to lead the losers. The Manilla team faces their stiffest test of the season next

Milwaukee May be Interested In The Brown's Franchise

By Chris Edmonds
MILWAUKEE, June 28—(AP)—Milwaukee's chances of becoming a big league baseball city depend upon making big league facilities available.

That sums up the situation as far as any possibility of shifting the St. Louis Browns' franchise here is concerned. You can take the word of the man who is most likely to head any such action on this end for the statement.

He's Frederick C. Miller, president of Miller Brewing Co. and an avid sports fan. Miller admittedly is interested in the Browns and has talked with club president William De Witt about buying the franchise.

A Need of Stadium
"We should have big league baseball here and I'll be very happy to help bring it," says Miller. "But there's no point in pressing for a franchise until and unless we have a civic stadium."

Right now the chances for a stadium look pretty good—but certainly not in time for the next baseball season. Maybe not even for 1952.

Construction of the stadium has been in the talking stage a long time. Last week a county board committee recommended issuance of bonds to build one at a cost of $3,500,000.

Yesterday the county board voted to begin preparation of a plan. At that price, architects say a 26,000 seat capacity structure can be put up. It could be enlarged, they add.

Brewers' Attendance
The Milwaukee Brewers of the American Association play home games at ancient Borchert Field. One-level wooden stands seat 9,800. The top attendance the club ever drew was 365,459 during the 1927 season. Two years ago it came close with 364,500. Last year only 266,210 fans visited the park.

Milwaukee's population, based on preliminary 1950 figures is 632,938. The county's total is 861,226. The three adjoining counties—Lake Michigan borders on east—bring the area population to over 1,000,000.

Braves Own Brewers
The Boston Braves, owners of the Brewers, wouldn't oppose the moving in of a major league franchise.

"We'd have to move our Triple A franchise out," Lou Peini, Braves' president has said, "but rest assured we wouldn't attempt to block Milwaukee's switch to the majors."

Sports editors of both daily newspapers here are heartily supportive of the move.

Cardinals Win Doubleheader From Chicago

Opener 3 to 2 and Nightcap by 4 to 1; Musial Hits Homer

CHICAGO, June 28—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals snapped out of their slump yesterday, swept a double header with the Chicago Cubs, 3 to 2 and 4 to 1, before a huge week day crowd of 38,832 paid.

Had Lost Eight Games

The Cardinals, who had lost eight of their previous 10 games, were blessed with brilliant pitching. Howie Pollet scattered eight hits in the opener. Another southpaw veteran, Max Lanier, tossed a five-hitter in the nightcap. It was the seventh victory for each of them.

The Cardinals scored all three of their runs in the curtain raiser while routing Johnny Vander Meer within the first two innings. Stan Musial hit his eighth homer in the first inning. In the second the Cardinals shoved over two runs on singles by Enos Slaughter and Red Schoendienst and three walks.

Walt Dubiel hurled shutout ball the rest of the way, but the Cubs couldn't close the gap. Roy Smalley provided one of the tallies with his eleventh homer.

Victimized Paul Minner

The Cardinals victimized Paul Minner in the nightcap. Tommy Glaviano's double and a single by Johnny Lindell counted one in the first inning. Bill Howerton's double, a fly ball and Lanier's squeeze bunt produced the next one in the fifth. Two more in the eighth were unearned due to a muffed fly by Hank Sauer.

The flutter kick is the best kick if it's done correctly. There are several things to remember if you think your kick could be improved:
For one thing, the legs should be kept fairly stiff. Don't flail away, because that's using up your energy.

Another thing is the knees. Don't bend them very much, because you don't have to. Notice how slightly my knees are bent. That's all the bend you really need.

The kick is not a high kick. You don't have to go very far above water. The dotted line shows you just about how high my heel goes.

Harper 1950 PGA Champ

Henry Williams, Jr., Bows to the New Title Holder 4-3

COLUMBUS, O., June 28—(AP)—Balding 36 year old Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., climbed on the throne as PGA champion yesterday firmly clutching a 10-year-old wooden-shafted blade putter—the magic wand with which he won the right to rule.

The drawing fee course professional defeated Henry Williams, Jr., loosely-played 36-hole finals of the $40,000 mid-century classic over Scioto Country club's treacherous 7032-yard terrain.

Won Tucson Open
In 12 years of touring the tournament trail Harper won only one tournament up to today—the 1950 Tucson Open. His victory here came as a surprise to everyone but Chandler Harper.

"After I got by Dick Metz in the second round, I felt that I could win," the Virginian said. "I still had Lloyd Mangrum and Jimmy Demaret in my way, but I had a hunch I could get by them, because I was playing consistently," Harper said.
In his last three 36-hole matches, against Mangrum, Demaret and Williams, the new boss of the pro's was never behind his opponent.

He wound up his match play chores 23 under par, although several of his birdies were conceded ones.

Two Dark Horses

Today's match between the two dark horses was a drab one most of the way. Williams, nervous at the start, went over par on the first three holes to give Harper a three-up lead, and Williams never got more than one of them back.

On the 33rd Harper banged a five-iron shot seven feet from the pin and ran the putt down for the birdie that won the match, the championship and the $3500 first prize.

"Satchel" Paige Signs With Philadelphia Stars

PHILADELPHIA, June 27—(AP)—Leroy (Satchel) Paige, veteran Negro pitcher who was with the Cleveland Indians for two seasons, signed today to pitch for the Philadelphia Stars during the month of July.

The Stars, members of the Negro American League, said Paige will make appearances in Rochester, Boston, the Polo Grounds, New York, and Dexter Park, Brooklyn.

Three Tumble From the Trans-Miss.

Jim Blair III Won By Default From H. E. Vanburg

By L. E. Skelley
OMAHA, June 28—(AP)—Three of the sixteen seeded players tumbled from the battle for the Trans-Mississippi Golf Championship today.

Nine others came through first round engagements according to the form chart. Two had byes and two won by default.

Johnny Kraft of Denver, seeded No. 1, had to go 18 holes to thrust aside a rugged challenge from Jim Johnson, a 27-year-old war veteran from Wauweta, Neb., who plays out of Goodland, Kans.

Kraft '42 Champ Wins
Kraft, the 1942 Trans Champ, took the match 1 up despite an unsteady 75 medal score, four over par for the $327-yard Happy Hollow course. Johnston, wounded twice in Pacific warfare and still carrying Jap lead in one side, had a 72.

The three seeded contenders who dropped out were Ira Couch of Omaha, Carl Johnson of Denver, and Harry Meginnis of Lincoln, Neb.

Couch, ranked 16th, lost a 10-hole sizzle to Major John Kline, stationed at the Offutt Air Force base near here.

Johnson, seeded No. 4, couldn't match the par golf of John Schumacher of Omaha and lost 3 to 2. Meginnis, track and football hero at the University of Nebraska, fell before S. P. Wright of Omaha, 5 and 4. Meginnis carried the No. 6 rating.

Top favorites other than Kraft moving ahead were Gene Zuppann of Goodland, Kas., (No. 2); Rod Bliss of Des Moines (No. 3); Robert Kosten of Kansas City (No. 7); Jack Vickers of Wichita (No. 8); H. J. Carey of Hutchinson, Kas., (No. 9); Tom Stephenson of Kansas City (No. 10); Hulewis of Kansas City (No. 12) and Jim English of Omaha (No. 15).

Bob Fraser of Omaha (No. 13) and Bob Willis of Kansas City (No. 14) had first round byes.

Jim Blair, 3rd of Jefferson City, Mo., (No. 11) won by default from H. E. Vanburg of Lincoln and Dick Ricketts of Lincoln defaulted to Dick Knight of Omaha (No. 5).

There were 27 matches and 37

byes in yesterday's opening play/second round. Starting time to- / THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT Sedalia, Mo., Wednesday, June 28, 1954 11

NEW YORK —(P)—What are we going to do with mama and the girls if war breaks out again? Let them pack an M-1 rifle into combat? Not if the vets have their way. The boys generally are dead set against fighting alongside a brasserie brigade or leading a petticoat patrol across homan's land.

The question comes up because La Belle Femme would surely have to play a greater role than she has in any previous American war. For women today not only out-think men—as always. They now outnumber men, too.

This means they will inevitably be more of a muscle factor in wartime. Rosie the riveter may have to man the factories all by herself, except for codgers too elderly for battle and too bald to be pinup boys.

But what about using women as actual frontline troops? A number of ladies I know say flatly that if another war comes they'll march on Washington if necessary to win the right to shoulder muskets and go overseas with the boys.

Some see this as a patriotic duty of their sex. Others have more personal reasons.

"Darned if I'll stay at home and be whistled at for another four years by high school kids and old men in rocking chairs," said a bachelor lady of mature vintage. And a wife explained:

"I'm tired of hearing my husband tell how he won the last war. I want to be able to tell him how I win the next one."

Just how the Department of Defense will react to this feminine militancy is a Pentagon secret. It probably will deploy the girls "according to plan." This is a military term used to cover retreats, victories, band concerts, the promotion of colonels and the outcome of the Army-Navy football game.

But a group of war vets I talked to showed no delight at the prospect of going into battle with women—be they college girls, beauty contest winners, or just someone's dear old grandmother.

Their general verdict: "War has enough hardships already. That would make it unendurable."

"Yeh," said a European veteran. "The women would start off by saying, 'Just treat me like one of the boys'—and in two weeks they'd be expecting you to stand up and tip your helmet every time they changed foxholes."

"And do you think any foxhole would satisfy them?" broke in another. "No—not if it had hot and cold showers and a small refrigerator."

Other comments: "Imagine coming back to a girl friend who had run a machine gun and wore two more medals than you. What could you talk about?"

"It might be all right to use women behind the front as cooks and truck drivers and traffic cops—or to build roads. The Russians did."

"If my wife went into combat I know the army would put me on a bazooka team with her. That's not war—it's just a kind of outdoor marriage."

"How about a female wrestler? She could carry the base plate for the mortar squad. It's too heavy for an ordinary man."

The boys agreed, however, that they had a wide open mind on the question of serving in an army commanded by a woman general.

"What difference does it make whether a general is a woman or a man?" said one. "Who sees him?"

NEW YORK — Notebook jottings:

Manhattan is the capital city of people who talk to themselves. They walk along gabbling out loud at a great rate.

Many appear to be out of their minds, but no one bothers them. . . . What happens to them? Where do they go? . . .

Passed one on crowded Sixth avenue the other day. . . . He was muttering this message over and over: "Get ready, sheep, get ready."

Diplomatic Chiefs Leave Korean Conference

Secretary of State Dean Acheson (left) leaves the White House in Washington with U. S. Ambassador Philip Jessup (center) and Assistant Secretary Dean Rusk after a conference with President Truman, congressional and military leaders. After the conference it was announced that the U. S. was sending men and arms to the defense of South Korea. (AP WIREPHOTO)

You won't be here long."

The summer deartin in good stories has set in. But with a bow to whomever it belongs to, I'd like to pass along the cutest one I've heard all season:

At a children's party one darling youngster suggested, "Let's play post office." The blushing boys and giggling girls all agreed it was a great idea.

The first pair to start the game were shy. So they went into a closet. The rest of the children gathered outside the door. They listened and listened but couldn't hear a sound. After about 15 minutes one child rapped on the door and said:

"What are you doing in there?" And from inside the closet a muffled small voice shrilled desperately:

"We aren't doing anything. Our braces are hooked!"

Friend of mine has a son in nursery school. When his parents set out recently to attend an evening meeting with teachers, he wanted to know why.

"Oh, to learn how to raise you better," he was told.

"Well," said the boy, "try to find out why I'm so afraid of thunder and lightning, will you?"

How-the-language-grows note. A movie producer giving his views to a luncheon group: "I'm just thinking out loud — mentally." . . . But my favorite is this mysterious remark overheard in a beauty shop: "So I told him, 'Listen, wise guy, take your diamond ring out of my new ten cent hair net.'"

Martini-lovers tend to want their drinks dryer and dryer. And bartenders sometimes get weary of being told, "Make mine like the Sahara."

"Why don't you just have a throwaway martini?" one barman finally asked on of these high voltage customers.

"What's a throwaway martini?" The barman poured some vermouth in a glass, swished it around, then emptied it down the drain. Then he filled the glass with pure gin and set it before the customer with the query, "Dry enough?"

A number of Broadway characters were having one of those heavy intellectual discussions that start in night clubs after midnight. The subject: How to deal with the German problem?

The argument grew bitter. Some thought the American policy was too soft. Some saw it as realists. One pointed at a U. S. airmen standing at the bar and said, "Let's get his opinion."

He approached the flyer and said, "I can see by your ribbons that you were in the European theater. What do you think we should do with Germany?"

"Pave it!" said the airmen, turning back to his beer.

Suit Over Accident On U. S. Highway 13

A damage suit was filed in the Circuit Clerk's office Tuesday afternoon by John W. Hubbard and the State Farm Mutual Auto Insurance Co. against Kenneth Wallen of Green Ridge.

The petition states that the plaintiff was driving south on Highway 13 and that the defendant was driving in a northerly direction on the same highway, and that when the cars met on a budge the defendant through negligence caused the cars to collide.

The plaintiff asks $404.96 as compensation for damages received.

Marines to be Up in The Air

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(P)—More than 15,000 Marine Corps Reservists are taking to the air this summer in connection with annual maneuvers on both coasts. This will be the largest airborne movement of reservists in any of the Armed Forces this summer.

Almost 10,000 of the airborne Marine Reservists will be members of Organized Reserve Ground Units who meet once a week in home training centers. Another 5,500 will be Aviation Reserve members, including some 400 pilots who will fly fighter planes.

The Reservists will be flown in Marine transport planes based at Cherry Point, N. C., and El Toro, Calif. Nearly 8,000 Reservists were so transported last summer without accident and every safety precaution again will be taken this summer in the various air lifts.

Evidence of Tragedy

Harvest Trail Moves Northward

With fields of ripening wheat awaiting harvest, vast armies of combines are cutting the golden grain. Above, Lloyd Orrell drives his self-propelled combine through his 1,000 acres of wheat near Peck, Kas. Orrell's grain weighed 83 pounds to the bushel in a test and a previously cut field averaged 20 bushels to the acre. (NEA Telephoto)

The Babies Chime in

EAST AURORA, N.Y.—(P)—Musical birth notices are all the rage in East Aurora of late, thanks to the amplified organ chimes of the First Presbyterian Church. The idea belongs to the minister, the Rev. B. Gibson Lewis, Jr. The practical end is handled by the church organist, Mrs. Fred D. Morgan.

Mrs. Morgan plays a 10-minute recital for each new arrival in the parish. The chimes can be heard over most of the village. "The Westminster Chimes" usually starts it off, followed by "The Doxology," a nursery song to indicate a girl or a boy, a hymn, a lullaby and "The Westminster Chimes" again.

"The clue for girls," says Mrs. Morgan, "is usually 'Mary Had a Little Lamb' or 'Bo Peep.' For the boys, it's 'Farmer in the Dell' or 'Little Boy Blue.' If I can, I try to work in a few bars of a song that will honor the mother."

A beam of light now aids in the battle against infection in hospitals. An alcohol dispenser and an improved dispenser for liquid soaps, are operated automatically by photoelectric relays, better known as "electric eyes," in place of more conventional means of controlling discharge of the liquids.

Good Taste For the Millions Is the Aim of This Designer

BY GAIL DUGAS.
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Russell Wright, a tall, lean, graying man, is an industrial designer whose chief interest is the white-collar home. He is fond of mass production in good taste, at a low or medium price, which will get into as many homes as possible throughout the country.

This fondness has put several hundred thousand sets of Wright-designed dinnerware on American tables, and his lamps, rugs, maple furniture, radios and sectional upholstered furniture in thousands of American homes.

What's the principle back of the Russell Wright designs?
"Well, you might say I like to design things which make living and entertaining easier," he explains. "I don't like formality. I'm in favor of a democratic way of living."

"It's become a sort of religion with me," he says, "to see that designs in good taste, in the medium price brackets, replace cheap, vulgar imitations."
As an example, Wright held up a machine-made lace tablecloth. Then he brought out a gray cotton cloth, its pattern picked out by drawn threads.

"These cloths were made on the same loom. The gray cloth is my translation of poor taste into good taste. I often get something which is cheap and in bad taste, or expensive but still in bad taste—and give it a new and entirely different life."

In the interest of cutting down on housework and making entertaining fun, not drudgery, Wright has designed a set of china in which you can cook, which can go to the table and later be used to store food away in the refrigerator. This same set it meant to stack in a minimum space, for careful use of space is another Wright principle.

In the fall, a complete line of Wright-designed furniture for slim budgets will appear. Many of the pieces serve a dual purpose. "There's a reading chair," he says. "It has a back tall enough so you can rest your head against it while you read. Ordinary chairs are no good for reading; they give you a crick in the neck. And it has a pocket on one side for magazines and an arm which flips up on the other side to give you a writing surface. You can almost keep house in that chair."

Russell Wright has never had much training as a designer. His family wanted him to study law at Princeton. He formed an immediate and enduring aversion to law and left college rather rapidly to work in the theater, under Norman Bel Geddes. As a set designer, he often made his own stage furnishings and properties because he couldn't find what he wanted. Soon, he had opened up shop for himself and was doing furniture.

He knew nothing about dinnerware when he started to design it; he just felt that people would like simple pottery in solid colors. So he gave it to them.

Several New Permits to Build

Recent building permits at the city hall have been issued to James Bozarth, to construct a private garage at 617 East Eleventh street; Royal Hotel, 113 East Third street, to erect fire escapes, with S.W.O. Iron works to be the contractor. A permit was issued to Lloyd

Champagne Shower

Mrs. E. W. Dolstein, wife of the vice president, opens her mouth and shuts her eyes as champagne showers down upon her after she christened the U. S. President Jackson at Camden, N. J. (AP Wirephoto)

The June meeting of the Sedalia Rose Society was held Sunday in the form of a pilgrimage to the rose garden of Henry Kipp, of Stover, where members enjoyed the well kept stting of many beautiful roses of both old and new varieties which were in full bloom.

Following the pilgrimage all went to the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carter, "Dun Romin" on Crystal lake for a picnic dinner. A vase of Peace roses, grown by Mrs. W. H. Eichholz, were used as a centerpiece for the dining room table in the cabin from which the fried chicken dinner was served cafeteria style. The guests then went to small tables which were set in the yard with colorful red and white checked tablecloths.

Special guests were William Tagtmeyer and sisters, Misses Zelma, Hulda and Thelma Tagtmeyer, of Stover; Miss Mae Sammons, of Huntington, W. Va.; Mrs. Wade of the state of California; Miss Maxine Patton, of Kansas City; Mrs. Alice Seifert, Miss Margaret Ferguson, Kenneth Strode, Bill Klang and Burl Raymond Sammons.

Plans were made for the next two months at a short informal business meeting which was presided over by the president, Mrs. Herbert Seifert.

It was voted at the meeting to send a gift to the Dr. J. Horace McFarland Memorial Fund. Dr. McFarland was a noted grower of roses and wrote several books on growing roses.

The afternoon was spent in boating, swimming and hiking.

The July meeting is to be an Independence Day celebration at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hayes, at 7:30 Tuesday evening, July 4.

Mrs. Lottie Wohlbeck, 1300 East Seventh street, had as a week-end guest her nephew, Glen Neitzert, who for many years has lived in Anchorage, Alaska. Last year he spent some time in Turkey.

Another nephew, Eugene Carpenter, and wife, of Fresno, Calif., were also guests. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter were recently married and came to Missouri on their honeymoon.

This was his first visit in Missouri since his youth. Recently the family held a reunion at Liberty park. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter were honored at that dinner. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Varner Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Carpenter, Mrs. Lottie Wohlbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Zumsteg, of Ottaville; Mr. and Mrs. Julius Neitzert, of Syria.

white carnations and baby's breath was tied with white tulle.

Mrs. E. W. Dolstein, of Versailles, sister of the bride, was her only attendant and wore a dress of white batiste with red flowers, red moire sash and her flowers were of red and white carnations. Her half hat matched her dress and her gloves were of lace.

Mr. E. W. Dolstein served as best man.

A dinner was given at 7:00 o'clock at the home of the minister and his wife with guests being members of the immediate families of the couple.

Following the dinner the couple left for a wedding trip to St. Louis and will return to Versailles today, where they have an apartment which they have completely furnished. For traveling the bride wore a sheer print dress with white accessories and corsage of white flowers.

An informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday evening. The dining room was decorated with baskets of sweetpeas. Two large wedding cakes were on the dining table, one a gift of Mrs. Joe Merriott, of Glensted and one a gift of Holm Bakery in Boonville. A lace cloth covered the table and on either side of the cakes were candles.

The bride is a graduate of the Versailles high school in the class of 1949 and attended Missouri university for a short time. She is employed by the M. F. A. Central Cooperative in Versailles.

Mr. Garrison was also a graduate of the 1949 class of the Versailles high school and is employed by his uncle, W. Foster, as a plumber and welder.

Miss Claire Mabry, of Hickman, Ky., has returned to her home, after being the house guest of Mrs. Robert Lelwich, who was before her marriage Sunday Miss Barbara Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Roberts, 1313 West Broadway. Miss Mabry was the bridesmaid in the wedding.

Also here to attend the wedding were Mrs. Roberts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCoy of Moberly, who were accompanied by Miss Stella Thornburg, also of Moberly.

Mrs. Lawrence Roberts and children Larry and Harriett of Santa Fe, N. Mex., have returned to Boonville, after attending the wedding of Miss Barbara Roberts and Mr. Bob Leftwich. They will visit in Boonville with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roberts and Mr. Howard Roberts' mother, Mrs. Pearl Roberts, who will accompany Mrs. Lawrence Roberts and children back to Santa Fe Thursday.

A bridal shower was given Miss June Lammert, of Versailles, who was married June 24 to Mr. Robert E. Garrison, also of Versailles.

How SMOOTH can a ride be?

THAT'S a question well worth answering before you settle on your next automobile.

For what fun is there—what thrill—in a car that is prisoner to the city streets, slowed down by roads a Buick is built to take in stride?

So we'd like to show you just how much smoothness your money can buy. How levelly you float over cobbles and car tracks—over rutty gravel and wavy black-top—in this stunning traveler.

The car will be any Buick you prefer—SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER. You can name the place—pick a spot or a stretch you know so that you can measure Buick's smoothness against your own experience—and we'll promise you a new sensation in riding comfort.

The time can be any time you want to arrange with your Buick dealer—who is ready to show with actual figures that "if you can afford a new car you can afford a Buick."

See him, will you, and treat yourself to some real comfort?

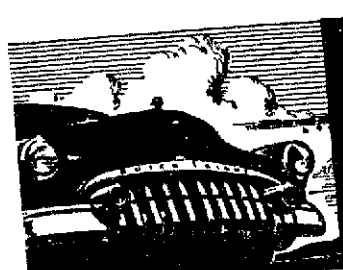

Only Buick has Dynaflo[®] and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines (New F-263 engine in SUPER models) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD forefenders, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

Miss Ruby Jean Krause, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Krause of Blackburn, became the bride of Mr. Ray F. Seibert, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Seibert of Sweet Springs, June 4 at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Zion Lutheran church in Blackburn. The single ring ceremony was read by the Reverend Richard Delventhal of Sweet Springs.

The altar was decorated with a center arrangement of summer snow roses, flanked on either side by bronze vases with white carnations and bronze candelabra. At either end of the altar were white tapers in twelve branched cathedral standards entwined with pulmosa fern. Baskets of delizlia, peonies and pyrethrum tied with white satin ribbon marked the bridal aisle.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Paul Wylie of Sweet Springs played, "Romance" by Rubenstein; "Wedding Offertory" by Leybach; "Song to the Evening Star" by Wagner; "Canzone Amoris" by Nevin; "Oh Perfect Love" by Bloomfield. Mrs. Cedric Meador of Sweet Springs sang, "Because" by Teschemacker and as part of the ceremony Mrs. Meador sang, "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte. She was accompanied by Mrs. Wylie who also played "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and "The Wedding March" by Mendelssohn. Mrs. Wylie played "Claire de Lune" while the candles were being lighted by Miss Barbara Heins of Blackburn and Miss Marilyn Hall of Sweet Springs, who wore gowns fashioned identically of pale pink nylon sheer over taffeta with matching mitts and wristlets of dubonnet carnations.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of French chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white taffeta. It was fashioned with a chantilly lace fitted bodice and a deep yoke of sheer illusion forming a boat neckline outlined with scallops and long sleeves that tapered to a point over the hands. The full gored skirt of nylon tulle was styled with a long cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of double tiered, imported illusion cascaded from a matching calotte. She carried a French cascade bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley, with loops of white velvet cord and centered with a white orchid and tied with white satin streamers. She wore a single strand of pearls with matching pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. James Chedester of St. Louis, a former classmate of the bride at Warrensburg, was matron of honor and Miss Elizabeth Young of Marshall was bridesmaid. Their gowns were identical of pale pink nylon sheer over taffeta made with a boat neckline, edged with shirred yoke and puffed sleeves. Their fitted bodices were accented with wide sashes and their full gored skirts were worn over hoops. They wore matching mitts and carried cascade bouquets of dubonnet carnations with pale pink velvet loops and pale pink satin streamers.

Russadean Heibert of Kansas City, niece of the bridegroom was the flower girl. She wore a bouffant frock of white nylon sheer over white taffeta, a miniature of the other attendants with matching mitts and a tiny calotte. She carried a small rosegay of white carnations accented with pale pink streamers.

Mr. G. R. Seibert of Kansas City, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. Merrill Krause, brother of the bride was groomsmen. Mr. D. R. Eaton and Mr. Kenneth Owsley of Kansas City and Mr. Lee Smith of Harrisonville and Mr. Garner Paul Wellner of Sweet Springs served as ushers.

Mrs. Kluse, mother of the bride, wore a dusty rose crepe with lace accents. Her accessories were navy blue and she wore a shoulder corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

Mrs. Seibert, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy sheer with matching lace. Her accessories were of navy blue and she wore a corsage of la France roses.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The receiving rooms were decorated throughout with garden flowers. The living room mantel was decorated with an arrangement of summer snow roses and tapers. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake encircled with pale pink baby roses and pulmosa fern. On either end were burning white tapers in branched candelabra. Two silver plates holding decorated individual cakes and mints completed the table arrangement. After the bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of wedding cake the cake was served by Mrs. G. R. Seibert of Kansas City while Mrs. Elroy Stuerke of Sweet Springs presided at the punch bowl assisted by Miss Charlene Lange of Sweet Springs. Others who assisted were Mrs. Harry Donnell, Mrs. Emma Pope of Sweet Springs; Miss Max-

No Sign of a Break in the Rail Strike

Forced Idleness for Coal Miners and Industrial Workers

CHICAGO, June 28.—(AP)—The spreading railroad strike continues without sign of break and thousands of coal miners and industrial workers were forced into idleness.

John D. Farrington, Chicago, president of the strikebound 8,000 mile Rock Island system, urged that President Truman intervene to end the strike of 4,000 AFL switchmen on five midwestern and western railroads.

"The President should back up the findings of his fact-finding board," Farrington told newsmen. Request Was Denied

The switchmen are striking in protest against a June 15 recommendation of a presidential fact-finding board. The board denied the request of 79,000 yard workers for a 40 hour work week at 48 hours pay. It granted the 40 hour week but with a hourly pay boost of only 18 cents.

The report also has brought strike threats from the Order of Railway Conductors and the AFL Yardmasters of North America; Things Look Dim

Leverett Edwards, a member of the National (Railway) Mediation Board, said after a conference with railroad executives:

"Things look dim. There is no indication of quick settlement."

The board conferred with rail executives and representatives of four unions in efforts to get the striking switchmen back to work and head off a threatened nationwide strike of the other unions after July 15.

The three day switchmen's strike also created a "serious situation for growers whose wheat crop is being harvested and shut off tourist trade for some resort towns in the Rockies.

Not Seriously Hurt When Hit by a Car

Jerry Joe Potter, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Potter 2118 East Broadway, was bruised but otherwise not injured when struck by a car driven by Edgar Zimmer-schied, 2304 East Broadway, about 9:25 o'clock Tuesday night.

The boy said he was going from his church, the Pacific Heights Baptist church, to his home when the accident occurred. He reported the City Bus had stopped to take on passengers and he walked around behind it and as he stepped out he was struck.

He was taken to the Bothwell hospital in the Gillespie ambulance where he was examined by Dr. John B. Carlisle.

A Bit Tough

DANVILLE, Ill. —(AP)— Bob Desebaugh was in a hurry. He snatched the well filled paper sack from the kitchen table and hustled away to his job as a caddy at the Harrison Park golf course.

TO HIGH POST—Bishop Karl J. Alter of Toledo, O., has been named by Pope Pius XII as the new archbishop of Cincinnati, O., to succeed the late Archbishop John T. McNicholas. Archbishop Alter, 64, has headed the Toledo diocese since 1931. He has been a leader in Catholic social welfare work.

He sat down to eat his lunch at noon, opened his sack, and pulled out a pair of old shoes.

Cantor and Allen Sign TV Contracts

NEW YORK, June 28 — (AP) —

Two top entertainers—Eddie Cantor and Fred Allen—have signed up for television programs after abandoning their radio careers.

National Broadcasting Sunday announced today the two stars would appear on a one-hour show "starting early this fall."

NBC said Cantor and Allen will be teamed with two other television stars on the program. Each will appear every fourth week on Sundays at 7 p.m. (EST). "The two other headline acts will be announced," said NBC, "as soon as negotiations for their services which are now underway are completed."

Chinese Nationalists To Cease Attacks

TAIPEI, Formosa, June 28 —(AP)—The Chinese Nationalists ordered their air force and navy to cease attacks on the communist mainland in accordance with a U. S. request.

President Truman had ordered U. S. warships to protect Formosa against Red attack and at the same time asked the Nationalists to cease offensive operations.

Welcomes Presidents Order

Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yen welcomed the President's order for warship protection as "a most welcome sign of comradeship in the fight against communism."

Yeh, roused from bed for a comment on the new U. S. policy in Asia announced yesterday (U. S. time), said he expected Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek would reply to the President's statement later today.

It may be taken for granted that Chiang, while probably agreeing to a temporary halt in Nationalist air and sea operations against the communist China mainland, will not bind himself to forego his plans for an invasion attempt to win back China.

Unofficial quarters in Taipei gave wholehearted whoops of delight on hearing about President Truman's move. The President's action was praised as wise, bold and fully justified by circumstances.

Eighty Persons Killed and 300 Hurt in Syria Explosion

DAMASCUS, Syria, June 28.—(AP)—Eighty persons were killed and 300 seriously injured in an explosion Tuesday at a big fuel depot near Homs, 100 miles north of Damascus.

The explosion reportedly was caused by a raging fire which swept the plant. Troops were sent immediately for rescue work.

American Arms Into Korean Fight

A U.S. F-80 Shooting Star fighter and a big B-29, at top, stand on the airfield at Misawa, Honshu Island, one of the important bases for operations against the north Korean Communists. Although the U. S. has announced it will use its air force in Japan to help south Korea's fight, modern American equipment, below, is slowed down by 850-old Korean methods crossing the Imjim river in the Ongjin peninsula along the 38th parallel. This is a detachment of American soldiers recently sent to help Korean defenders along the parallel where Soviet-trained forces were halted. (NEA TELEPHOTO)

Refugees Reach Japan

Situation Keeps Market Humming

This was the scene Tuesday on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange as brokers and change employees tried to keep up with the continuing flood of selling orders brought on by the Korean situation. • The Washington Merry-Go-Round Has America Lost Its Pioneering Spirit?

By Drew Pearson

OSKALOOSA, Iowa, June 28 — I have been visiting out here in the middle west away from the bureaucrats, the McCarthys and the wire tappers, where I had the honor of helping dedicate the great lighting system that illuminates the granite faces of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Teddy Roosevelt on Mount Rushmore.

Thinking about these heroes and what they would have done in this present age of fear, I couldn't help wondering whether we today are exercising all the pioneering resourcefulness which they showed in founding this country.

I couldn't help thinking that maybe the present generation is too soft, too content to rely on modern inventions and mechanical miracles. What would we have done with a great wilderness to conquer? Would we have had the courage, the perseverance that they did?

Today we face the same kind of political wilderness behind the Iron Curtain and some of us seem content merely to worry about our personal problems while the world balances on a razor's edge between salvation and ruin.

We have become great specialists in material things. We can build any weapon, a rocket plane carrying us to another continent, perhaps to another planet. But we do not seem able to build permanent peace.

With casual cold-bloodedness we deal with the people abroad on a "how-cheap-can-we-buy-you" basis. We think we can purchase Europe or Asia with guns and airplanes, wheat and steel, forgetting that the handshake counts more than the handout, that the smile is worth more than silver.

One World

What we don't seem to realize, however, is since the scientists have made us neighbors to the rest of the world, we must begin thinking in terms of one world.

When George Washington went to New York for the first inaugural, it took him fourteen days from Mount Vernon. Now it takes one hour by plane, while in fourteen days we can fly twice around the world. So the world today is one world in scientific fact, and we must begin to think of it as such in political fact.

I do not care whether we call it a federal world union, or united world federalists, or a world constitution. But I am sure that if Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln were alive today, they would throw their great pioneering spirit into working for new goals.

When they first wrote our constitution, the skeptics told them that a federal union was impossible. The colonies were miles apart, not only in distance, but in language, in customs, and in creeds. All they had was a common need for survival.

But Washington and Jefferson overcame those obstacles to form a federal constitution that has become the greatest in the world.

Five years ago when I went to San Francisco to watch the diplomats form the United Nations, we thought we were taking a great step forward. But at that time, we did not know about the atomic bomb. And today, the United Nations, bogged down by vetoes, paralyzed in this age of fear, is just as out of date as the cavalry and infantry of Washington's army.

The present generation has one great thing in common with the founding fathers — an urgent need for survival. And just as they fought to establish American democracy, we have got to fight to establish a world democracy — world brotherhood.

Actually we are battling against an idea — the phony idea of communism. But Teddy Roosevelt would be ashamed of the fight we are making. We, in many areas, are letting Russia win the battle of creeds, without even giving our own creed a good display in a big show window. We are supposed to be the world's best salesmen. We've sold iceboxes to Eskimos, sun lamps to Hottentots. Yet we, a nation of crack salesmen, have partly let the communists outsell us.

No good salesman balks at selling in a competitor's territory. Yet for a long time we have balked at selling behind the Iron Curtain, and we are still doing only a halfhearted job of it.

But if we hold up the ideal of world brotherhood and sell it hard enough, we can penetrate the Iron Curtain. But it will take just as revolutionary a brand of salesmanship as that used by the founding fathers, including the goal of world government.

If we are realistic today, we face the discouraging fact that democracy is in danger of being lost by default.

Faced with this situation, I doubt if Washington or Jefferson would rely solely on arms and things material. They would put all their pioneering resourcefulness, which conquered the wilderness, repelled foreign invaders and amalgamated thirteen widely-separated colonies, into ending this age of fear.

Jefferson would probably write a "Bill of Rights" for the world. Washington, despite his "Farewell Message," would begin to get behind the Iron Curtain with the ideals and ideas necessary to a lasting peace. Lincoln and Teddy Roosevelt would make a bold attempt to bring about a change, even if they risked failure. For each knew that it was possible to accomplish the impossible.

So we've got to revise our thinking and realize that democracy was a great gift handed to us at a great price. We have got to work just as hard to preserve it as Washington or Jefferson worked to establish it. Washington sacrificed a life of luxury for an ideal; Jefferson and Lincoln welcomed revolutionary thinking. And if the physicists have made this one world in scientific fact, it is up to us to make it one world in political fact.

Worth-While Point Four Plan Burdened by Dull Label

By Bruce Brossart

Seldom in American history has a program with high aims had a title so sterile and empty-sounding as "Point Four." The average American can be forgiven for yawning unashamedly at its mention.

What is it? A plan to give backward, undeveloped parts of the world the benefit of this country's technical know-how in health, sanitation, farming and other fields. It could be a mainstay in the free nations' fight to check the flow of communism into poverty-stricken regions.

The program acquired its dry-as-dust name from the fact President Truman, in his inaugural address in 1949, listed it fourth in a series of proposals for world peace and recovery.

Congress already has authorized the plan and its initial funds, so the case for it need not be argued as a general idea. But if it is ever to be what it promises, some meat has got to be put on the dull bones.

Secretary of State Acheson, whose public utterances are not often eloquent despite his incisive mind, nevertheless made a start in this direction in a speech the other day.

As he sees it, the world has now grown too small for any powerful, healthy country like the United States to view without worry the existence of areas plagued by disease, poverty and ignorance. Trouble spots anywhere can become dangerous to the strongest nations.

"We must make the world understood that it is not only the Communists who will send people out to live among them," he said. "We, too, are willing to send out our people, not to spread ideology but to do things, not to oppress or rule them but to help them."

The program needs specialists who will go into the backward lands fired with missionary zeal, with a willingness to endure hardships to "carry on a people-to-people kind of diplomacy."

As a small sample of what could be done, Acheson noted that a handful of expert outsiders had in four years cut the malaria rate in Greece from 2,000,000 cases a year to 50,000. He added:

"If you could improve the quality of the rice seed in Asia, you would almost solve the (Asiatic) food problem — it's that simple."

Cast in these tangible terms, the program takes on vivid life and impact. That's the way this story must be told if it is to win the full support of the American people, as it must to succeed. This more human approach should be continued; and the next step might be a new title for the program to get it out of the realm of the textbooks.

This Modern World

According to American belief, when you mechanize any area of life you introduce a laudable efficiency whose benefits are unmistakable. There is evidence that you also introduce new risks of trouble, which can prove very inefficient.

We had a little example of this the other night in Cleveland. The management of the Cleveland Indians had been worried because its baseball games, like those elsewhere in the majors, seemed to be dragging out interminably. As a speed-up measure, it put a jeep on the field to haul relief pitchers from the distant "bull pen."

On the evening in question, the system appeared to be going smoothly as a Cleveland hurler piled into the jeep for his joy-ride to the mound. But, halfway in, the fate that governs the machine world struck hard. The jeep ran out of gas. Pushing it wouldn't work, so the humiliated pitcher had to climb out and walk the rest of the way.

That's the sort of thing you let yourself in for when you rely on machinery.

Seen But Not Touched

Disturbed because East Berliners can wander into the city's western zones and see attractive goods for sale in shop windows, the Soviet-run stores of the eastern section have hit on a solution.

They are now displaying their own attractive array of consumer items in the windows. There's only one hitch—you can't buy the stuff. Apparently it's just laid out to prove that the Communists can at least make it, even if not in sufficient volume to sell.

During the recent heralded German Red youth rally in Berlin, this little scheme had a try-out. The government put some sausages out on loan to the shops, and they were promptly strung in windows to impress the throngs of youngsters from out of town.

Later, after the kids had dispersed, the Communist officials called in their loan. The strings of sausages disappeared, presumably returning to the Government Sausage Reserve, or wherever the Reds keep such treasures.

Ps. 6:2—3, 6—7; 19:7; Matt. 9:1—7

DISEASE IS NOT THE WILL OF GOD

If disease and physical disharmony are ours it is probable that they are from one or more of four causes: (1) actual structural disease, brought about by heredity, accident, contagion, ignorance, or willful abuse; (2) functional disease, which may pass into structural disease, brought about by wrong mental, moral, and spiritual attitudes; (3) lack of, or unbalanced, nutrition, brought about by poverty, ignorance, or willful neglect; (4) environmental factors which directly produce disease, or wrong mental and spiritual attitudes, which in turn produce disease.

Note that in the four sources of disease and disharmony I do not mention the will of God. God does not will disease. God wills health. Disease is an enemy which Jesus fought against and healed whenever He could get co-operation. He never once told people to bear disease as the will of God. "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." That is the Christian note. It is true that disease comes from breaking the laws of God, but God does not send it; we break His laws and they break us. But that makes us, not God, the author of that disease. God has provided for health, not disease. A friend once said to Dr. W. B. Cannon, the great Harvard physiologist, "When you know all the diseases it is possible to have (something over a hundred and twenty-five), you wonder how anyone is ever well." To which Dr. Cannon replied: "When you know a great deal about the human body, you wonder why anyone is sick." (Quoted by Dr. Russell L. Dicks, Religion in Life, 1941, Vol. X, No. 4, p. 515.) The human frame is organized for health and, if the way is cleared by right co-operation with nature, will produce health.

Gracious Father, Thou has wrought possibilities for health and rhythm into the structure of my being. Help me to co-operate with Thee, so that no crippling disease shall mar the efficiency of my work for the Kingdom. Help me to keep fit for Thee. Amen.

'Nagging' Parents Pass Buck to Child

(Here's the ninth of 10 articles by the executive director of The Children's Village, famed training community for undisciplined and unadjusted boys, which give a new perspective on relationships between the normal child and his normal parent.)

BY HAROLD F. STRONG
Written for NEA Service

An apparently harmless habit, continual "nagging" of children, can erode and destroy their respect and affection for parents.

Boys of the Village voted "nagging" the most objectionable trait of parents.

There is no point in deluding ourselves. A "nagging" father or mother is hard to live with.

He is hard to live with because he is refusing to shoulder an adult responsibility.

Unpleasant as it is to face, a "nagging" parent is one who places the responsibility of seeing his orders obeyed upon his child, instead of assuming the obligation himself.

That is why children resent it. They know why we have passed them the buck.

It is unfair.

Parents whose youngsters criticize them for this habit sometimes find it helpful to take their children into their confidence. Usually, they will readily recognize our right to reject the humiliating role of the "nagger."

If we defend our position as we should, we will generally find them pretty co-operative in working out a new understanding of our obligation to see that orders are obeyed.

"Nagging" refuses children the security of knowing we mean what we say.

Our approval is children's greatest satisfaction. "Nagging" is harmful because it sustains constant conflict and disapproval between us and our youngsters.

We have no right to deprive

THE STORY: Ben Corbett, special investigator for State Attorney General Keever, has received $1000 in daily $1000 installments from an unknown source. Before he can decide just how to tell Keever about it, Keever receives an anonymous phone call telling him someone on his staff has accepted a large bribe. Keever calls Corbett into his office.

III

KEEVER had caught something in my expression that had almost given me away when he mentioned "large bribe." "This thing is a shock to me. Doesn't it shock you, boss?" I said, trying to shake it off.

"Naturally. I was quite stunned. My first inclination was to regard the call as a crank call, but the girl insisted that it was all too true. She knew positively that one of my men, a man in a key position, and whom I trusted completely, had accepted bribes totaling $4000. The money had been paid in four installments of $1000 each. I demanded to know who the man was, and she said she didn't know. But she did claim to know that the money was still on him and that a shake-down would turn him up."

I drew a deep breath. "Going to frisk everybody, boss?"

Keever frowned. "I can't do that, Ben. The kids who do the leg work would probably have to like it, but they would hardly likely suspects. This girl said the culprit was a man in a key position. There are about a dozen such men I couldn't think of subjecting them to such a humiliation. Paul Waring, my first assistant, for example. If I even suggested such a thing to him, he would turn in his resignation instantaneously. And there's Bill Atkins the second assistant. He's a fine lawyer who left a profitable practice to come with me."

It was true. Both Waring and Atkins were highly successful lawyers with personal fortunes so large that they could afford to leave private practice for the excitement of public life.

Children on Vacation Are no Problem if Mothers Co-operate

Summer vacation in many households is a mixed blessing. The children greet three months of no school with delight, while the Mama groans inwardly at the thought of trying to keep the young ones occupied and out of the neighborhood fights that are always resulting from unsupervised play.

The answer for Mama lies in co-operation with the other mothers in her neighborhood.

If they don't co-operate they are all tied down all summer, and all tormented with the every-hour-on-the-hour question: "What can I do, Mom?"

But if they get together on the Netherlands separated into two independent countries?

A—In 1815 the Netherlands and Belgium were united by the Congress of Vienna. This arrangement lasted until 1830 when the Belgians revolted and proclaimed their independence.

Q—What are territorial waters? A—In international law, territorial waters include those within a country's borders, such as lakes and rivers, and that part of the sea within three miles of the country's shores.

Keever frowned. "I can't ring in just anybody on this, Ben. I came to you because you're the one man in the outfit that I know won't sell me out." He colored and added quickly. "Naturally, you're loyal because you appreciate all I've done for you."

My mouth hung open. Wasn't I the guy who'd cracked his tough cases and put him right into the attorney general's office? But I said:

"Thanks, boss, but there's one other guy in the joint that you can trust."

"You mean Preston Shelton? I suppose you're right. If you want him, take him. Only, for heaven's sake, make sure that he understands the importance of secrecy!"

"O.K. Now let's hear that record a couple more times."

I wanted to memorize the sound of the girl's voice. I was sure that no attempt had been made to disguise it.

SHELTON came into my office later. He sat down and propped his feet on some of the magazines on my desk. He is a good-looking kid, one of those clean-cut blond guys that need a haircut to keep off the women. On top of that he is a strictly swell guy, and the only man in the joint that I'd trust farther than I could throw a bale of hay.

"Something up, Ben?"

"I'll tell you. I told him about Keever's anonymous phone call and my assignment to turn up the recipient of the four grand."

"Well, it's going to be like hunting for a needle in a haystack, finding out who has been accepting a bribe! Since we can't frisk anyone, it may take months. I doubt that we ever do find out who got the money!"

I laughed drily. "Oh, that's no problem at all. I already know who got the money!"

Shelton sat up straight. "You do? Who?"

"Me. Now, tuck your eyes back into their sockets, Shellie, and I'll tell you the whole story."

Judge Blair Rules Against Segregation

Missouri's University And State Colleges Must Admit Negroes

JEFFERSON CITY, June 28—(AP)—Circuit Judge Sam C. Blair ruled last night the segregated University of Missouri and Missouri's state colleges must admit Negroes as well as white students.

Ruling From Bench
Judge Blair's ruling from the bench came in a case involving two Negroes who wanted to enter the Rolla School of Mines and one who wanted to take a graduate course in economics at the University at Columbia.

The judge held that the University's refusal to admit the three men violated their rights under both the state and federal constitutions. He said there was no doubt about it under recent rulings of the United States Supreme Court.

Judge Blair added that it made no difference whether Lincoln University for Negroes here had been allotted state funds to set up such courses.

That, he said, was beside the point. He said since it has no money Lincoln University is under no legal duty to establish the additional courses.

The judge ordered attorneys in the case to draw up a formal declaratory judgment to be entered in the court records later.

Will Resolve All Conflicts
William S. Hogsett, an attorney for the University board of curators, who brought the suit, said he thought Blair's ruling would resolve all the conflicts. He had asked for an opinion that would let the university "know what our duty is."

Afterwards, he said he thought the decision had answered all questions about the University and other state-supported institutions of higher learning.

The three students who sought to enter the segregated schools were Elmer Bell, Jr., and George Everett Horne, both of St. Louis, and Gus T. Ridgell of Poplar Bluff, Mo. Bell and Horne wanted to go to the School of Mines, a branch of the University of Rolla. Ridgell sought admission as a graduate student at Columbia.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur held the arm of President Syngman Rhee of the South Korean republic when Rhee visited Tokyo last February. MacArthur is preparing now to ship U. S. materiel from Japan to Rhee's sorely pressed troops to combat invasion by Communist armies from North Korea. Rhee said it is "very difficult to save anything" with the American aid "coming as late as it has." He added that American aid was "too little and too late." (AP Wirephoto)

Tells His Sick Great-Grandchild To Take Hadacol

Little 3-year-old girl was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin.

Who says older folks don't keep up on the latest advancements? Here is a most interesting bit of news from Mrs. Francis C. Parr, Senior, of 1356 Walton Way, Augusta, Georgia. Mrs. Parr writes:

"Our daughter's 3 yrs. old and has been sick for quite some time. Children her age could make two of her. We have been giving her HADACOL for a month now and we can already see a great change in her.

"Her complexion has a rosy tint to it now, but before Joyce had a pale look and color. So many people told us to try HADACOL. The results are wonderful. Joyce's GREAT-GRANDFATHER was the one who took it in our family and recommended it for our child. We really are grateful to the makers of HADACOL and never will our little girl go without HADACOL."

A Very Smart Man
Little Joyce's great-grandfather certainly knew what he was talking about and Joyce should be very thankful that her great-grand-daddy kept abreast of modern medical blessings. So don't delay. If your kiddies are underweight, nervous, have no appetite, suffer from constipation or easily upset stomachs due to lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin in their systems—have them start taking HADACOL at once. Let this great new HADACOL give your kiddies a grand appetite, let it help them grow up into healthy, happy men and women.

Big Improvement Often Noticed Within Few Days

HADACOL not only supplies deficient little systems with more than their daily needs of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese—elements so vital for growth and to help maintain good health. And these vitamins and minerals come in pleasant liquid form so that they are more quickly absorbed into the bloodstream—ready to go to work at once.

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of red blood (where iron is needed) to go couraging to every part of their little bodies bringing unbelievable new strength and energy. A big improvement is often noted within a few days' time in nervous, rundown, kiddies who have such deficiencies.

You owe it to your little ones to give them HADACOL daily. Be proud when your neighbors comment about your happy, healthy youngsters! Trial size bottle of HADACOL costs only $1.25. Wise mothers always buy the large family or hospital size for $3.50. Refuse substitutes. There is only one genuine HADACOL—recommended by many doctors.

Israel Tightens Travel Regulations

TEL AVIV, Israel.—(AP)—That big question, "Is this trip really necessary?" so often used during the last war now is getting a thorough workout in Israel. It has been determined to put a stop to exit permits for Israelites who go abroad for fun and take a lot of foreign currency with them.

David Horowitz, director-general of the ministry of finance, told a news conference that 8,956 Israelites went abroad the first four months this year. That represented an increase of 176 per cent over the 3,297 persons who traveled in the corresponding period of 1949. That meant, too, that the Israeli travelers, by converting pounds into dollars at banks in this country, took a lot of badly needed foreign currency with them. Now the ministry of finance has decided that foreign currency may be obtained only by those Israelites who are making "essential journeys" abroad.

Some People Like Skunks

LONG BEACH, Calif.—(AP)—Carroll Anne Vosburg, 12, reports she had 50 offers to adopt her pets after a picture of the girl and her three baby skunks appeared in the Long Beach Press-Telegram.

There are 15 per cent more earthquakes when the moon is nearest the earth than there are when it is farthest away.

Courtesy Card Brings Trouble

HAIFA, Israel.—(AP)—Sometimes courtesy doesn't pay. The police here received a postcard from Zvi Glass, who had escaped from prison. He thanked the police for their "attentive treatment" and said he was about to leave Israel. The police took a look around, found Glass in a Haifa cafe and took him back to prison.

Greeks Get a Kick Out of USA Mules

AP Newsfeatures

Koula is a long-eared mule with USA branded on her flank. And according to legend, American mule-skinner would call her a "3/4" (3/4) — (censored!) But not Evangelos Tertingas, a slight, wiry Greek farmer of Xenias near the rich plains of Thessaly. To Evangelos, Koula is more than a mule. She is hope.

This new darling of Tertingas and his brood is between three and nine years old. Reddish-brown in color, Koula stands between 10 and 12 hands high — about 50 inches. She is in good health and halter broken. Koula met these requirements before she was approved for shipment from the United States for Greece.

The story of how an American mule travelled 7,000 miles from her native land to labor in Greece is a story of human hope in which the average American — through the Marshall Plan for European recovery — has played a great part.

Example of Marshall Plan

The events which led to the arrival of Koula and thousands of other mules in Greece, involved deliberations of recovery planners of the Greek government and of the ECA on the needs of the more than 500,000 refugees who awaited re-location after the war. And the vital part Koula is playing today in the lives of the Tertingas — a part being repeated thousands of times over throughout agricultural Greece — is another confirmation of the Marshall Plan belief that, given the means, free men will struggle to remain free and to build better, happier lives.

Scarcely more than 150 families, among them the Tertingas, people the tiny village of Xenias. The torches of Italian soldiers and guerrillas had left it fire-blackened, little better than the ancient ruins on which it stood.

Evangelos Tertingas returned to Xenias and to the 62 acres of land which were his largest remaining possession. Before the war he had been well fixed for a Greek farmer. He had owned 70 head of sheep, 20 goats, 10 cows and six horses. Also two mules, two donkeys and about 40 chickens. His house had been among the finest in the village. Only the walls remained. The livestock and farm animals were gone.

A Slice in Time

Evangelos' supply of money was a two-month allotment of about $54. The other villagers had as little to tide them over until they were able to become "productive." The task seemed almost impossible to Evangelos. It could not be done by hand. Machines and farm animals were necessary.

The Greek ministry of agriculture and the ECA mission and anticipated these problems. Wherever possible the ministry machine-plowed two and a half acres for seeding, free of charge. Plans were made to buy and ship 7,500 mules to Greece, at a cost of $250 a head, delivered.

"Happy!" Evangelos cries, when asked how he felt about his mule. "Without a work animal I was lost!"

Blackhead in Turkeys

PREVENTION:
On premises where blackhead has been a problem in the past, losses from blackhead can be controlled by the continuous administration of rations containing 1/4 lb. ENHEPTIN PREMIX per 100 lbs. of total ration. This makes an 0.5% amino nitrothiazole mixture. Begin feeding this medicated ration 1 to 2 weeks before birds reach the age where losses have been experienced. Good sanitary and management practices should be followed at all times.

You Can Depend on MAIN STREET CUT RATE DRUG For The Newest and Best Products

CONTROL: At the first signs of an outbreak

- (1) Remove regular feed.
- (2) Place entire flock on an all-mash ration containing 1/4 lb. ENHEPTIN PREMIX per 100 lbs. of feed for 2 weeks (this makes an 0.1% amino nitrothiazole mixture).
- (3) If necessary to continue medication beyond 2 weeks, use an all-mash ration containing 1/4 lb. ENHEPTIN PREMIX per 100 lbs. of feed for the third week or at least for one week after losses or symptoms disappear.
- (4) While the whole flock is receiving medicated mash, it may be advisable for sanitary reasons to remove visibly sick birds from the flock. These birds should also be treated, although the drug may not be effective in the advanced stages of the disease.
